An oasis in the desert is the best way to describe the subdivision of Stonegate in beautiful Scottsdale Arizona. As you pull in past the guard gate, the streets are lined with palm trees and green grass. As you make your way to this home you pass the tennis courts which are a block from the home. Pulling up in your circular drive way and parking you will next walk through the front court yard to a stunning iron and glass front door. The homeowners have loved and cared for this home and a few years ago remodeled the kitchen and laundry room (see the pictures). This is a perfect layout with a split master suite that has an office and exercise areas. The other bedrooms are very spacious with on suites and walk in closets. You will fall in love with this lush backyard with sparkling pool. The
